HELD IN COLLABORATION WITH THE

bsg BRITISH SOCIETY OF GASTROENTEROLOGY

I'm looking forward to welcoming you to the Midland Gastroenterological Society Autumn Conference and our 118th Meeting. This year's programme brings together an excellent range of speakers, including our BSG collaboration, alongside opportunities to meet and network with colleagues and connect with our sponsors.

New for this year, we will also have dedicated breakout rooms, providing additional opportunities for discussion, learning and sharing ideas throughout the conference.

I hope you will join us for what promises to be an engaging and enjoyable meeting, with an exciting programme designed to enhance our knowledge, skills and connections within gastroenterology.
