

EUROPEAN CAPSULE ENDOSCOPY TRAINING PROGRAMME

BEGINNER COURSE PROGRAMME

Thursday 15th January 2026, Lumley Castle, Durham

|       |                                                               |                                 |
|-------|---------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 09.00 | Welcome and introduction                                      | Amit Chattree                   |
| 09.15 | Pre-course assessment                                         | Amit Chattree                   |
| 09.30 | Hands on part 1 – Getting started                             | Amit Chattree                   |
| 10.00 | How to perform capsule endoscopy                              | Carolyn Davison                 |
| 10.20 | How to read and report a capsule study                        | Clare Parker                    |
| 10.40 | Morning tea/coffee                                            |                                 |
| 11.00 | Hands on part 2 – Anatomical landmarks                        | Phey Shen Lee                   |
| 11.45 | Patient selection                                             | Amit Chattree                   |
| 12.15 | Lunch                                                         |                                 |
| 13.15 | Hands on part 3 – Common pathology                            | Martin Keuchel                  |
| 14.25 | Capsule retention and the patency system                      | Melissa Hale                    |
| 14.50 | Afternoon tea/coffee                                          |                                 |
| 15.05 | Capsule endoscopy in special situations                       | Nigel Beejay                    |
| 15.30 | Hands on part 4 – Grey casesFaculty and participant cases | Martin Keucheland David Tai |
| 16.40 | Post course assessmentevaluation                          | Amit Chattree                   |
| 17.00 | Close                                                         |                                 |

EUROPEAN CAPSULE ENDOSCOPY TRAINING PROGRAMME

ADVANCED COURSE PROGRAMME

Friday 16th January 2026
Lumley Castle, Durham

|       |                                                                      |                                      |
|-------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 09.00 | Welcome and introduction                                             | Amit Chattree                        |
| 09.10 | Clinical outcomes and patient management                             | Mark McAlindon                       |
| 09.30 | Hands on part 1 – Variants of normal, incidental finding, lookalikes | Amit Chattree & Clare Parker         |
| 10.30 | Morning tea/coffee                                                   |                                      |
| 10:45 | Hands on part 2 – Polyps, tumours, bulges, unusual and rare findings | Simon Panter                         |
| 11.30 | Crohn's Capsule Endoscopy- An introduction and Hands on Cases        | Melissa Hale                         |
| 12.30 | Lunch                                                                |                                      |
| 13.30 | Small bowel enteroscopy                                              | Reena Sidhu                          |
| 14.00 | Capsule MDT: individual case analysis                                | Reena Sidhu                          |
| 14.30 | Role of small bowel imaging in the CE era                            | Peter Hewitt                         |
| 15.00 | Afternoon tea/coffee                                                 |                                      |
| 15.15 | Hands on part 3 – interesting casesFaculty case                  | Mark McAlindon,&Clare Parker |
| 16.15 | Discussion and evaluation                                            | Amit Chattree                        |
| 16.30 | Close                                                                |                                      |